This realization leads to action, obeying God's commands and following the example set by Christ. As we see in the transformation of the prodigal son, the result is a life-changing, destiny-altering collision - an AHA moment that leads us home to our loving Father. We are all bundles of competing desires and half-true labels.

Everything I needed When I started this book I was looking for guidance I was looking for answers but what I got in return was deeper than I thought. I had an aha moment that brought me to tears and not in the form I asked. It is profound. The Path Made Clear truly allowed me to feel more clarity, to get realigned and trust. So good.

These moments drag us down - leaving us feeling hopeless and lost. You need something to happen in your life to change. You need a But God... moment. The But God moments are when God comes in and offers a new path and hope for our lives. These moments occur when we are at are lowest, and turn our down-trodden worlds around for the better.

Aha is that moment when something clicks, makes sense, you see the big picture. Kyle Idleman uses the "Aha" moments throughout the Bible to not only show God's mercy and grace that he extends towards man but also the doom and desperation that follows one who rejects or never comes to that ground breaking truth.
