Cliff McNish's top 10 dogs in children's books. When I was asked to put together a top 10 list of children's books with amazing dogs the first thing I realised is that mutts in children's fiction have brilliant names. What self-respecting child called Jack or Emily wouldn't really rather be Pongo or Missis Pongo from Dodie Smith's The 101...

by Dena McMurdie. Big or small, dogs wiggle their way into your heart and become part of your family. They're loyal companions, mischievous rascals, and masters of the pleading puppy eyes — especially when bacon is involved. For all the pooch-loving kids out there, here are some great picture books that celebrate man's best friend.

Famous Dog Names S. Shoeshine: The civilian name of the dog star in the 2007 Underdog movie. Spot: In the 1946 book Dick and Jane, a children's reader series. "See Spot run" is a famous line.
