Aspiring performers Denise and Dotty are offered a job at the "Palace"--but it turns out to be Pedro's Pastrami Palace. Instead they go to work as elevator operators at Radio City, hoping to crash a television show and be "discovered." The two young women help destroy a variety show, a science fiction show, and a broadcast of "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

It was a type they used to use a lot in comedy. This particular story comes from the third issue of DIZZY DAMES, which was published in 1952 by the American Comics Group. Reblogged from <http://www.againwiththecomics.com/2008/12/dizzy-dame-named-moronica.html>

Since trading in nearly my entire collection of thousands of comics for an original piece of Avenger's cover art, as a ninth grade boy, I had one disillusioning experience after another with people who traded in comic books.
