Lethal Lineage is the second book of the Lottie Albright series by Charlotte Hinger. You don't need to have read the first book to understand what's going on in the small Kansas town where Lottie lives. This is a big plus, because I was introduced to the character with this book. The first thing that impressed me was the sense of place.

Lethal Lineage: A Lottie Albright Mystery #2 Charlotte Hinger A sinister Episcopal Bishop shows up to confirm Lottie and Josie Albright's niece at the new frame church built on the corners of four Western Kansas counties.

Lethal Lineage (Lottie Albright Series Book 2) ... Deputy Sheriff Lottie Albright, is another spellbinding mystery. Hinger again weaves a riveting tale that winds through the musty historical archives of Carlton County, Nebraska, and through the back roads and homes of the rural residents, some not so friendly to Lottie's mission to delve into ...

The first book in this series, Deadly Descent, relied a great deal on Lottie's skill as an historian digging through old records, documents, and genealogical charts. In Lethal Lineage, Lottie finds herself focusing more on the oral histories of several county residents.

Lethal Lineage, Charlotte Hinger's latest addition to her brilliant series with small-town local sleuth, Deputy Sheriff Lottie Albright, is another spellbinding mystery.
