This autumn we finally received our copy of Paper Jewellery. Design & Make by Sarah Kelly and by now everybody in the studio owns a copy so that the discussion who was allowed to take home the initial copy finally came to an end (thanks Mrs. Accountant for understanding our business expenses).

Sarah Kelly originally began working with paper to create models for jewellery in more traditional materials, but realised that paper was the material that intrigued her the most. She exhibits and is collected internationally, is a visiting lecturer and also runs jewellery workshops for adults and children. She runs her business at saloukee.com.

Design and Make Paper Jewellery offers a series of masterclasses by experts who work with paper, and features examples of work from a breathtaking array of international makers. Techniques covered include encasing, crocheting, moulding, sculpting, cutting and binding, with paper types ranging from origami papers, to found papers, to paper yarn.

Welcome to Saloukee, a world created by me, designer Sarah Kelly. I create an array of handmade jewellery, all made in my workshop in Shropshire, UK.
