Private Heller and the Bantam Boys: An American Medic in World War I is dedicated to Private Ralph Heller, the Princeton University Bantams, the United States Army Ambulance Corps and every man or woman who has ever gone to war not to take lives, but to save them.

“ Private Heller and the Bantam Boys is thought provoking, entertaining, educational, engaging and a reminder that, like now, war is hell. It is through the action of men like Ralph and the Bantam Boys that the Red Cross today still commands such a high level of respect.”—
