The Great Seal is kept in a mahogany cabinet and displayed in the Exhibit Hall of the Department of State in Washington, D.C. All State Seals The United States seal has a rich history beginning with our founding fathers in 1776 when the first Continental Congress resolved that Dr. Franklin, Mr. Jefferson, and J. Adams "bring in a device for a seal for the United States of America."

State of Jefferson Controversy. The Jefferson flag would be green and would show the Jefferson seal: a yellow circle with two X's to symbolize the people being double crossed by Salem, OR and Sacramento, CA.

This men's black T-Shirt features the Great Seal of the State of Jefferson in yellow and black. The two Xs symbolizes what the originators of the movement felt was the 'double-cross' of the people by their representatives in their respective state capitals - Salem in Oregon, and Sacramento in California.

Seal of the United States. The Second Continental Congress appointed a committee on July 4, 1776, the day the Declaration of Independence was adopted, to select a design for a United States seal. The original committee members were John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, and Thomas Jefferson. The committee submitted its recommendation on August 20,...

The Great Seal of Missouri. The center of the state seal is composed of two parts. On the right is the United States coat-of-arms containing the bald eagle. In its claws are arrows and olive branches, signifying that the power of war and peace lies with the U.S. federal government. On the left side of the shield, the state side, are a grizzly bear and a silver crescent moon.
