Trapped on the Mountain. ... He was the mountain man, the hunter. After a pause, he said, "We go down." Then, upon checking the ice and snow, we found to our joy and amazement that the ice had turned to slush. We could walk on it. The weather was still cold, with no warm winds to soften the ice, and I knew in my heart that the Lord had ...

In both Wrecked and Trapped, the couples are relative strangers, but with this story, Ash is a grieving mountain man who barely speaks. Too little for my liking. It was just too sudden after the way Ash brought in Isobel, even if both were very attracted.
